

THE BEST DOG PRODUCTS OF THE YEAR AND THE WINNERS ARE...

2008 PupLife.com Dog Products Of The Year Awards

PupLife.com prides itself on the fact that we only carry the finest dog supplies available. We search far and wide for the healthiest, safest, highest quality dog products and only the best are selected for inclusion on the site. For every item that we add to our selection, hundreds are turned down. For a dog product to make the cut, we think it has to be pretty special.

We've completed a list of products from this past year that presented the best combination of style, performance and value for our customers. We feel that these selections represent the best of the best. Customer input, sales numbers and product consistency were all factors we looked at, but at the end of the day, our dogs made the final decisions. So, drum roll please... here are the 5th Annual Dog Products of the Year!

Dog Health Product Of The Year
